NEWS RELEASE:

25/1/74

FROM: THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY MEMBER FOR FLOREY
(MR. CHARLIE WELLS)

SUBJECT: HILLCREST HOSPITAL

The administration building at Hillcrest Hospital, Fosters Road, Gilles Plains, is to be renovated at a cost of $254,392.

Revealing this today, the House of Assembly Member for Florey (Mr. C. Wells) said the Minister of Health (Mr. D. Banfield) had informed him State Cabinet had recently approved the work.

Mr. Wells said the contract had been awarded to McEntee and Williams Pty. Ltd.

First and second floors of the building will be converted to provide administrative offices.

All offices will be air conditioned.

Work includes the installation of a lift and up-grading of plumbing and electrical services.

The existing ground floor offices will be upgraded with new ceilings to corridors.

Corridors to ground and first floor offices will be redecorated and carpeted.

Mr. Wells added that work is expected to be completed late in September.
